1. Why did you choose the EAP Committee? Why now?

2. What does being a union EAP rep mean to you?

3. What personal/professional experience will help you do EAP work (union work, volunteer work, educational background, twelve-step group member)?

4. Being on the EAP Committee requires a commitment. Will you be able to serve for at least one year?

5. EAP work entails many responsibilities such as: record-keeping, referral evaluation, regular communication with your chair or the international office, etc. (you can be held legally liable if the work is not properly done). Do you understand and accept this? If no, please explain.

6. As an EAP rep, people will share sensitive information you must keep confidential. Can you maintain the strictest level of confidentiality? If no, please explain.

7. If necessary, would you be available to a troubled flight attendant (TFA) at any time? Other than being on a trip, please discuss any limitations you may incur.

8. Having a “clean” work record is very important towards building your credibility as an EAP Committee member. Are you in “good standing” with management/in-flight (i.e., no dependability issues, passenger complaint letters, FAR infractions, problems with crew scheduling, etc.)? If not, please explain.
